

KIK Custom Products is a National Safety Council 2011 Industry Leader Award Winner

The National Safety Council announced that KIK Custom Products has been honored with a 2011 Industry Leader Award. The award is a component of the Council's member-exclusive Safety Motivation and Recognition Awards Program. The award benchmarks outstanding safety achievements among member companies based on self-reported data.

KIK Custom Products is one of 52 companies honored with the 2011 Industry Leader Award. The award recognizes the top 5 percent of member companies, units and facilities that have met the criteria and qualified for the National Safety Council's 2011 Occupational Excellence Achievement Award (based on 2010 calendar year data). Winners are selected based on NAICS code, lowest total incidence rate and employee work hours.

For additional information on the Industry Leader Award or other awards in this program, call the National Safety Council's Motivation and Recognition Department at (800) 621-7615, ext. 52385.

The National Safety Council is a nonprofit, charitable, international public service and membership organization educating and influencing people to prevent accidental injuries and deaths. Founded in 1913, and chartered by the U.S. Congress in 1953, NSC promotes safety in the workplace, in transportation, and in homes and communities. Members of NSC include 54,000 companies of all sizes from a broad spectrum of industries and facilities with 8 million employees around the world. The National Safety Council serves as the nation's leading resource on industry trends, professional development, and strategies for advancing safety and health programs and practices. The Council is active in converting injury research and trends information into injury prevention education, training, consultation and advocacy leadership. As a membership organization, the National Safety Council provides opportunities for greater engagement in addressing industry-specific issues.
